

PANORAMA

OPEN CALL #04

Galeria Fran Reus launches the fourth edition of the open call Panorama for artists who perform contemporary artistic practices and that will end in a group exhibition. The objective is to offer an exhibition space to emerging artists to give them visibility, making their works known, putting them on the market, and the opportunity to get in touch with the galleries through a collective exhibition.

Who is it for?

Panorama is for artists and groups of artists between 18 and 40, of any nationality and origin. In the case of collectives this will choose a spokesperson.

How to participate?

To participate, you must send a dossier in digital format (.pdf) where the CV is included, a list of available works, contact information and any information that the artist or collective considers pertinent to the following email: panoramafranreus@gmail.com (*)

* Only proposals received through this email address will be accepted, not through any other ways. It will also be the only way to contact to request more information or solve doubts about it.

Selection

The Selection Committee will choose between 5 and 10 proposals from among all those received depending on the type of works and their suitability in the exhibition space.

The selected artists or groups will be informed by email and by publication on the gallery's website.

From among those selected, the Gallery could choose an artist or group to hold an individual exhibition within a maximum period of one year after the end of the group show.

Terms

The shipping costs of the work / s to the gallery will be borne by the artist or group and the return by the gallery to the same address of origin.

The works will be for sale. In case of being acquired, the artist will receive 50% of the sale price and the gallery owner the other 50%. Otherwise, the return of the works will be made within 60 days after the end of the exhibition.

The deadline for receiving proposals will be 28th NOVEMBER.

The decision will be communicated before 2nd DECEMBER, only to the selected artists or groups.

The selected artists or groups will be part of a group exhibition that will be inaugurated between 13th–18th DECEMBER (subject to changes due to the current situation) until the middle of March.

By submitting the proposal, the artists or groups accept the conditions of this call.
