OPEN CALL #7

Galeria Fran Reus is launching the seventh edition of the call Panorama for artists who carry out contemporary artistic practices, which will culminate in a group exhibition in December 2023. The aim is to offer an exhibition space to emerging artists, or not so emerging, to give them visibility, making their works known, putting them on the market and giving them the opportunity to come into contact with the gallery world through a group exhibition.

→ Who is it for?

Panorama is aimed at artists and artist collectives between 18 and 40 years old, of any nationality and origin. In the case of collectives, they will appoint a spokesperson.

→ How to participate?

To participate, send a dossier in digital format (.pdf) including a CV, a list of available works, contact details and any other information that the artist or collective considers relevant to the following email address: panoramafranreus@gmail.com

Only 1 PDF will be sent with the requested information. Applications containing more than 1 PDF file and/or jpg images sent individually will be excluded. Only proposals received through this e-mail address will be considered, not through any other ways. It will also be the only way of contact to request further information or to resolve any doubts

→ Selection

The Selection Committee will choose between 10 and 15 proposals from among all those received, depending on the type of works and their suitability for the exhibition space.

The selected artists or collectives will be informed by e-mail and by publication on the gallery's website.

From among those selected, the Gallery could choose an artist or group to hold an individual exhibition within a maximum period of one year after the end of the group show.

→ Conditions

The cost of sending the work/s to the gallery will be paid by the artist or collective and the return will be paid by the gallery to the same address of origin in a max period of 3 months.

The works will be for sale. If they are purchased, the artist will receive 50% of the sale price and the gallery the other 50%.

The deadline for the reception of the proposals will be NOVEMBER 13th.

The decision will be communicated on NOVEMBER 20th, only to the selected artists or collectives.

The selected artists or collectives will be part of a group exhibition that will open on DECEMBER 15th.

This year the Acquisition Award will be continued. The committee will choose 1 work and the decision will be published before the end of the exhibition.

By submitting the proposal the artists or collectives accept the conditions of this call.
